NINTH-FLOOR LIVING WITH A FULL-WIDTH BALCONY

Positioned on the ninth floor, this one-bedroom apartment makes the most of its footprint — a generous open-plan living and dining zone that flows straight out to a balcony running the entire width of the apartment, taking in Trinity Inlet and city views.

It's a low-maintenance proposition that suits a few different buyers — an owner-occupier wanting a lock-up-and-leave base in the CBD, a downsizer after simplicity without giving up position, or an investor buying into a building with proven rental demand.

Step onto the balcony with a coffee in the morning or watch the lights come on across the water at night. Out the front door you're moments from the Esplanade, the Reef Fleet Terminal, and the best of the city's dining and marina precinct — all on foot.

And when you're not enjoying the view, the resort-style facilities give
