

24 Renouf Street, Casey

Effortless Single Level Living in a Low Maintenance Setting

Designed with intention and built to endure, this beautifully presented residence offers relaxed, low maintenance living in one of Gungahlin's most welcoming and family focused neighbourhoods.

Held by the one family since new, the home has been lovingly maintained and remains in wonderful condition, a reflection of quality craftsmanship and a home that has been genuinely cared for.

At its centre, light filled open plan living brings people together. Lounge, dining and family spaces flow effortlessly, anchored by a gas fireplace that adds warmth and atmosphere through the cooler months. Large windows and energy efficient glazing invite natural light and enhance comfort year-round, complemented by ducted heating and evaporative cooling.

The kitchen is calm and contemporary, finished in soft whites with generous storage, stainless steel appliances, dishwasher and pendant lighting.

Accommodation is generous yet considered. The main bedroom feels like a retreat, complete with large walk-in robe and a spacious ensuite with double vanity. Three further bedrooms, including a large fourth, offer flexibility for growing families, guests or working from home. The main bathroom includes a bath and separate toilet for everyday ease.

Outside, a covered alfresco extends to a low maintenance Eco deck, softened by a shade sail, ideal for slow mornings with coffee or relaxed evenings with friends. The secure garden is fully irrigated with established hedging, magnolias and productive plantings, including a lemon tree, crab apple and raspberries, supported by a 2000L water tank and garden shed.

Set within a friendly, tightly held street, this home enjoys a wonderful position in Casey, close to local shops and cafes, leafy parks, walking trails and a strong sense of community.

A home defined by warmth, balance and thoughtful design, ready to be lived in and loved from day one.
