

14 George Street, Cessnock

Character Living with a Backyard to Love

Presenting an exciting opportunity in the heart of Cessnock, this spacious three-bedroom residence brings together generous proportions, impressive outdoor entertaining and an expansive 743sqm parcel to create a home with genuine versatility for families and investors alike.

From the moment you enter, the home reveals a warm and distinctive living space, where an exposed brick feature wall, timber-lined ceiling and exposed beams bring character to the generous 6.6-metre-long living room. Continuing through the home, all three bedrooms feature built-in robes, before the floorplan opens into the substantial tiled kitchen and dining area. Designed with everyday practicality in mind, the kitchen offers extensive bench and cabinetry space, gas cooking and a walk-in pantry, while split-system air-conditioning provides year-round comfort. A centrally positioned bathroom and convenient second toilet within the laundry services the property well.

An expansive entertaining area connects with a separate enclosed BBQ area, creating excellent flexibility for hosting. Within, the fully fenced backyard lies an inground swimming pool while a substantial stretch of lawn provides further space for children, pets or simply
