Rare 1,684sqm R3 Holding - Renovated Home, Walk-to-Town Position

Set in the heart of Cessnock, this substantial 1,679sqm block presents a standout opportunity in the sought-after R3 Medium Density zone.

Offering flexibility for developers, investors or owner-occupiers alike, the property combines scale, zoning advantage and immediate liveability - with scope to explore future development or extension potential (STCA). Blocks of this size in such a central setting are increasingly rare.

The home itself is a cracking three-bedroom weatherboard residence, loaded with modern comforts, with the hero being a stunning Caesarstone kitchen with under-mount sink, stainless steel appliances and dishwasher. The living and dining area is huge & provides generous everyday space, while all bedrooms are well-proportioned and positioned off a central hallway. The sleek bathroom showcases a wall-hung vanity and double shower, complemented by additional rear bathroom facilities for convenience. Air conditioning enhances comfort year-round.
