

7 Gilmour Street, Chermside West

MOVE IN READY - NORTH FACING BACK YARD!

Positioned within a quiet, tree-lined pocket of Chermside West, this solid high-set brick residence presents an outstanding opportunity for buyers looking to secure a well-maintained home with future potential on a generous 663m² allotment with a 19.7m frontage and desirable north-facing backyard.

Offering a practical layout with multiple indoor and outdoor living spaces, the home is immediately comfortable while also presenting clear scope for renovation or future enhancement over time. The established nature of the property, combined with the size and usability of the block, also makes it an appealing option for buyers exploring future development potential (STCA) while maintaining strong holding appeal as a rental investment.

The main living area flows directly to a large enclosed sunroom, capturing natural light and elevated suburban outlooks, while the spacious north-facing backyard provides ample room for families, entertaining, or future landscaping improvements. Existing kitchen and bathroom spaces are neat and functional, allowing buyers flexibility to update at their own pace.
