Quality and refinement with postcard-perfect views to Lion Island

The views to Lion Island are the kind that stop you mid-sentence, yet it's the quality and quiet refinement of this luminous beach house that lingers long after the gaze has settled. Tucked just above Clareville Beach, the contemporary residence is all about privacy, brilliant sunshine and phenomenal views; set on a low-maintenance block of approx 1,733sqm, the glass-wrapped layout capitalises on all three.

The balanced design encompasses two levels, providing each with spacious living zones and spectacular views, allowing the vistas to take centre stage. Floor-to-ceiling bifolds to the wraparound deck slip away entirely, striking a fine balance between living indoors and out, while the island kitchen is fresh and streamlined with thick stone benchtops and a full range of Miele appliances. The layout is ideal for families and guests with bedrooms on both levels and a lavish parent's retreat set to capture the iconic Pittwater views.

Less than 200m from Clareville Beach in a beautifully protected setting, it's a gorgeous pocket of calm that dovetails with a relaxed, unbuttoned lifestyle; this is a home with a point-of-view about living life
