

173 Hudson Parade, Clareville

Dream lifestyle location at Taylors Point

The iconic north views up Pittwater are simply dazzling, but it's the enduring quality and position of this home that truly seals the deal. Just steps from Taylors Point and its netted beach, the dress-circle setting is one of Clareville's most coveted, while the versatility of the layout works beautifully for families, downsizers and weekenders alike. Set against the backdrop of Lion Island and Ku-ring-gai National Park, the dual level design is tailor-made for life on Pittwater; the free-flowing floorplan offers several casual living areas, superb entertaining options, lawns for the kids and a sparkling saltwater pool.

A great choice for extended families or weekend guests, the lower level is a self-contained studio that can easily double as a rumpus or teen retreat. This is one of those rare homes that really speaks to the rhythm of life on Pittwater; a place where all are welcome, where stress melts away and a morning swim puts everything right.

- Spectacular views across Pittwater Lion Island to Ku-ring-gai National Park
- Light-drenched north aspect; vistas over the ever-changing waterfront
- Immaculately maintained and presented; offers flexible, dual level layout
