

Clareville, 191 Hudson Parade

Two Homes on One Title, Luxurious Architect Designed Residence, Prime Pittwater Location, Water Views, North Aspect

Step inside this bespoke beauty with dreamy interiors that take their cues from the coast with an eclectic fusion of Palm Springs design and Japanese influences that are off-set by tropical inspired gardens. Conceived by architect Nanna Lesiuk as a calming sanctuary that's incredibly peaceful and private, the minimalist and highly functional design aesthetic uses pure tones and textures to create tactility, light and cohesion between indoor and outdoor living spaces. Beautiful yet practical, the carefully selected fixtures and finishes set a mood of timeless luxury while every detail has been considered with social areas for entertaining, intimate spaces for quiet retreat with walls of glass framing the Pittwater vista and achieving a remarkable luminosity. A home that excites and delights, it is complemented by a two-bedroom cottage, that is perfect for guests, extended family or income.
