Poolside Living & Country Views ‐ Where Every Day Feels Like a Holiday

Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac and just moments from local schools, this beautifully updated highset home offers a lifestyle that feels both relaxed and effortless. With generous proportions across two levels, modern updates throughout, and a private outdoor setting with no rear neighbours, this is a home designed for comfortable family living or the perfect low-maintenance retreat where every day feels like a holiday.

Upstairs is light-filled and welcoming, centred around an open plan living space that flows seamlessly to the verandah‐capturing peaceful country views and cool breezes. The home is move-in ready with updated flooring, fresh external paint, updated window coverings, and full air-conditioning throughout‐meaning there's nothing to fix, nothing to spend, just move in and enjoy from day one. The added bonus of selected essential furniture items included (enquire for full list) makes settling in even easier. Downstairs adds incredible flexibility with a fully functional second living zone, ideal for extended family, guests, or simply extra room to spread out.
