

3 Gotha Street, Cleveland

STUNNING COTTAGE-STYLE HOME IN SOUGHT-AFTER OYSTER POINT

Positioned in one of Cleveland's most tightly held pockets, this charming 1950s cottage offers a rare opportunity to secure a unique piece of Oyster Point history.

Set on a generous 1,012m² allotment of rich Redlands soil, the home is believed to be among the early residences built on land once known locally as the "Police Paddock" - a term traditionally used for land historically associated with police horses.

Tastefully renovated while preserving its original character, the home blends timeless mid-century charm with modern comfort. Beautiful timber floors, high ceilings and wraparound verandahs create warmth and character throughout, while the updated kitchen and bathroom feature quality appliances, fixtures and finishes.

Perfectly located close to the Oyster Point boat ramp, Stradbroke Island ferry, the historic Grand View Hotel, local schools, shops and waterfront lifestyle amenities, this is a home that offers both lifestyle and long-term potential.
