Prime Location

Cleveland remains one of the Redlands' most established and desirable bayside suburbs, known for its combination of transport access, shopping convenience, schooling options, and waterfront lifestyle. Natalin Street sits in a quiet residential pocket while still offering easy access to the suburb's key amenities.

- Cleveland District State High School is the local secondary catchment school, with Cleveland State School, Bay View State School and Star of the Sea Primary School also nearby options
- Cleveland Central offers everyday convenience with Woolworths, Coles, and more than 60 specialty stores in the heart of the suburb
- Raby Bay Harbour adds strong lifestyle appeal with marina dining,

- businesses, and waterfront surroundings
- Cleveland train station provides rail access through to Brisbane, supporting easy commuting and broader connectivity
- The home sits in an established Cleveland pocket close to the wider Redlands Coast lifestyle

Offering generous accommodation, excellent vehicle space, and a quiet cul-de-sac position in a highly convenient suburb, 5 Natalin Street presents a strong opportunity for families seeking space, flexibility, and comfortable living in Cleveland.
