

Cleveland, 55 Bay Street

Double brick home with pool on a subdividable block

Welcome to 55 Bay Street Cleveland, an inviting haven for families seeking the perfect blend of spacious living and outdoor delights. This double brick residence boasts a sprawling yard with a refreshing inground pool, tailor-made for both avid gardeners and families with children and pets.

Nestled on an 803m² block, the property holds the promise of future possibilities with the potential for subdivision. The thoughtfully designed layout ensures ample room for indoor and outdoor entertainment, making it an ideal retreat for a large family. The home's meticulous care by passionate gardeners is evident, featuring a large solar system, solar-heated pool, and flourishing gardens nourished by a substantial rainwater tank.

The lower level beckons with an inviting entryway, expansive lounge and dining areas, a family room adjoining the open-plan kitchen, and a versatile rumpus/fourth bedroom with a bathroom and spacious laundry—a perfect haven for guests or those with mobility needs.

Ascending the stairs reveals three generous bedrooms, with the master suite offering a spacious private balcony and walk-in robe, capturing refreshing bay breezes throughout the home. This solid 1990-built double brick gem stands as a rare testament to enduring quality in construction.

Immaculately maintained, this home also features a host of amenities, including a substantial water tank, a large inground pool, solar power with dedicated pool heating, three garden sheds, a double carport with an electric roller door, all encapsulated within the durability of a double brick structure. This home is fully air conditioned throughout with security screen on all windows and doors.

Situated on the water side of Cleveland, this residence enjoys a superb location with convenient access to transport, shops, local schools, parks, and all the amenities characteristic of this leafy seaside suburb. Don't miss the chance to explore this beautiful home—your tranquil and spacious retreat awaits!
