

Clontarf, 16 Kalimna Drive

Large Family Home In A Great Location!

Nestled in the serene suburb of Clontarf, the spacious residence at 16 Kalimna Drive offers an exceptional opportunity for all buyers looking to put their stamp on a large family home. This expansive property sits on a generous 610 square metre corner block and provides a canvas for a complete renovation, tailored to your own taste and specifications.

Boasting five well-proportioned bedrooms and three bathrooms, this house is perfectly suited for a growing family or savvy investors looking to capitalise on the home's potential. The property's layout includes two large kitchens, providing an intriguing option for a dual living arrangement or for those who love to entertain on a grand scale.

Outside, the ample land size ensures plenty of room for children to play or for hosting family and friends in the Queensland sunshine. The off-street parking includes space for three vehicles, adding convenience and security.
