Something Special Awaits at Coasters Retreat

Arrive by boat, breathe in the bushland air and feel the pace of life soften. Immersed in nature and surrounded by Ku-ring-gai Chase National Park, Coasters Retreat offers a wonderfully special Pittwater lifestyle, where wallabies roam and the everyday bustle feels a world away. Yet Palm Beach is just across the water, bringing a reassuring connection to the mainland while preserving the tranquillity of this cherished coastal enclave.

Set across approximately 1,062sqm with a prized north-facing aspect, this property captures beautiful Pittwater and bushland views directly opposite The Basin. Approximately 200 metres from Bonnie Doon Wharf, it enjoys convenient access to the ferry service, making the journey home part of the pleasure.

Still under construction, the new residence and separate self-contained cabin/studio present an exciting opportunity to bring your own vision to life. With much of the hard work already completed, the home awaits your choice of fixtures, fittings and finishing touches. Soaring ceilings create a striking sense of space above the living and dining areas, setting the scene for a home that feels connected to its extraordinary surroundings.

LJ Hooker

Currently configured with five bedrooms with an additional two flexible spaces as well as a generous second lounge/kitchenette room offering a layout that provides room for extended family, visiting friends and memorable holidays together. The separate cabin/studio adds further flexibility to create a retreat where everyone can find their own space.

Imagine slow mornings overlooking the water, afternoons exploring Pittwater and evenings gathered together beneath the lofty ceilings of a home you have made your own. This is a rare opportunity to complete something deeply personal in a place where nature, simplicity and time together become life's greatest luxuries.
