

60 Grieves Road, Colinton

A Place to Slow Down and Soak in the Views on 41 acres

If you are searching for a peaceful country escape or the perfect place to create your dream rural lifestyle, this stunning 41 acre property in the picturesque Colinton countryside deserves your attention.

Featuring gently undulating land with exceptional rural views, the property offers a seasonal watercourse flowing into a dam, providing a scenic natural feature and potential water source for livestock.

The original homestead has seen better days and presents an exciting opportunity for renovators, or alternatively, a blank canvas to remove and build the country home you've always envisioned. The current home is inhabitable.

A large storage shed or animal shelter, divided into numerous pens and constructed many years ago, offering a range of potential uses for hobby farming, livestock, or storage.
