

103 McLean Street, Coolangatta

The Perfect Blend Of Past & Potential.

This is your opportunity to secure a rare piece of local history. One of the largest blocks of privately owned land in Coolangatta. And a homestead that has been standing for over half a century; she's gently weathered but deeply loved.

Restore and renovate or start afresh on this blue-chip block at the peak of McLean Street. The property is a relatively flat 1,578 square metre allotment, with 28 metres of street frontage and views over Cooly, Tweed and the ocean beyond.

This home is not short of personality! Maybe it's because of the different pastel themes from room to room, painted personally by the previous owner. Complete with high ceilings, period features, and bay windows that allow the morning sun to flood through. There are multiple living spaces, extra-large bedrooms and plenty of parking!

Enjoy a lifestyle where the beach is a part of your every day. Walk or ride to the surf and enjoy a dip in the pool when you get home.

Surrounded by lawn where the kids can safely run around. And you even have a thriving a mango tree out the back! This home truly
