

1 The Halyard, Corlette

Renovate, Refresh and Reap the Rewards

Positioned on a generous approx. 788sqm corner block in a sought-after pocket of Corlette, this spacious four-bedroom home is packed with possibility for buyers wanting room to move and the chance to add real value.

Comfortable and well-maintained as is, the home offers a functional single-level layout with multiple living areas, a central kitchen, two bathrooms and a seamless connection to the expansive covered outdoor entertaining space. Surrounded by established tropical gardens and private courtyard areas, there is already a great foundation here for relaxed family living.

While the home is a little dated in places, that is exactly where the opportunity lies. With solid proportions, a flexible floorplan and plenty of outdoor space to work with, a cosmetic update or thoughtful renovation could completely transform this into a fabulous family home tailored to your own style.

The four bedrooms are well sized, including a master with ensuite, while the double garage, extra off-street parking and separate shed add valuable practicality for families, tradies, boat owners or anyone
