

Coronet Bay, 69 Cutty Sark Road

"YOORHOOGA" - A REMARKABLE FEDERATION HOMESTEAD!

Gracing one of the largest residential landholdings in Coronet Bay, "Yoorhooga" is a magnificent federation homestead where heritage grandeur and beautiful modern enhancement converge. Built in 1912, Yoorhooga was the original homestead of the larger 460-acre estate which has since been developed into the township of Coronet Bay. The elevated position of the residence takes in picturesque ocean views across Western Port Bay and surrounding farmland.

The interiors have been improved with modern comforts whilst keeping many of the original features. Solid timber floor boards, soaring high ceilings, decorative mouldings and original solid timber walls are reminiscent of the early 20th century excess and opulent architecture from when Yoorhooga was first built. Modern reverse cycle air conditioning, upgraded lighting, renovated bathrooms and a modern kitchen, complete with quality appliances, create a residence that is both comfortable to live in and easy to maintain.
