Walk through the front door and the family room opens up in front of you. It's a welcoming start to a home that genuinely works for everyday life.

The kitchen sits to your left and flows straight into the dining space, so whether it's a weeknight dinner or a Sunday with the whole family over, the home holds it comfortably.

proper sleep-in on a Saturday morning or simply a space that feels like yours at the end of the day, this home delivers it.

Outside, the flat 375sqm block is increasingly hard to find in established family suburbs. There's real room for a garden, a trampoline, a vegetable patch or simply space for kids to move.

Crace does the rest. Crace Central sits within the suburb with a supermarket, medical centre, childcare, chemist and gym. The Community Recreation Park and Gungaharra Grasslands Nature Reserve are right there for weekends outdoors.

Whether you're buying your first home, upgrading or rightsizing, 29 Vandyke Street is worth your time.
