Classic Country Charm on 1.5 Acres

Tucked away at the end of a long, private driveway and elevated to capture sweeping farmland views, 124 Cemetery Road is a timeless country homestead that has been beautifully preserved and lovingly maintained. Set on 1.5 pristine acres but surrounded by vast neighbouring farmland, the property feels significantly larger, offering the peace, privacy and classic rural atmosphere Crohamhurst is so well known for. Wrapped in wide verandas and framed by immaculate gardens, this charming timber and brick residence exudes warmth and character at every turn.

Inside, the home maintains its original country soul while delivering generous, practical living. A massive traditional kitchen anchors the home, complete with abundant storage and a picturesque outlook across rolling hills. Spacious bedrooms, beautifully maintained interiors, a second toilet, and light-filled living spaces create a home that feels both comfortable and full of heart. From kookaburras perched on the balustrade to the soft sounds of nature all around, this is rural living at its most peaceful, all just 5 minutes from Peachester township and 15 minutes from Beerwah township.
