Discover Your Beachside Retreat in Currarong!

Dreaming of living or holidaying near the coast. Currarong is located at the northern tip of the dramatic Beecroft Peninsula on the NSW South Coast and adjacent to splendid Jervis Bay, a haven for dolphins, seals and penguins. Jervis Bay Marine Park also encompasses the waters off Currarong, making for great swimming and water sports. This home has a new colorbond roof, freshly painted exterior, brand new bathroom & renovated kitchen, renovated 2nd bathroom, new timber decks, new fencing & side gates.

This home brings together the laid-back charm of coastal life & will invite you to slow down, savor your surroundings & create a sanctuary that reflects the peaceful pace of seaside living. Enjoy the morning sunrise on the lovely blackbutt timber deck/front balcony. The front door leads you straight through to the elevated rear merbau timber deck overlooking the big backyard. A relaxed but classic cottage with character and charm of a home well-loved, updated kitchen adjoins the dining and flows through to the living area. Embrace the warmth and charm of a cozy fireplace, perfect for those cooler evenings after a day spent on the beach. Three bedrooms are surrounding the newly renovated bathroom.
