

257 Cape Kimberley Road, Daintree

LUXURIOUSLY SERENE DAINTREE LOCATION

A trophy property without parallel – your dream awaits.

Discover a world where luxury meets nature, nestled against a backdrop of the pristine Daintree Rainforest.

Affectionately known as The Cape House, this exquisite property combines modern convenience with natural beauty over 58 unspoiled hectares (approximately 144 acres).

And with two World Heritage icons - the Great Barrier Reef and the Daintree Rainforest - as its neighbours, you know you've found something very special.

A private driveway meanders through established orchards and manicured lawns that are complemented by the surrounding rainforest where freshwater creeks, walking trails, waterfalls, seasonal pools and an ancient vegetation abounds.

The sprawling (400m²), award-winning, architecturally designed home features massive timbers reclaimed from the former Cairns Brewery and is entirely off grid to respect its surroundings, powered by solar
