a warm and inviting retreat. The open-plan family living and meals area is bright, spacious and perfectly balanced for busy family life. At its centre, the entertainer's kitchen boasts a huge island, 40mm stone benchtops, quality appliances and generous storage. Sliding doors open to the tiled courtyard which is a beautiful setting for long lunches, family celebrations and relaxed weekends.

Private spaces for the whole family: The rear of the home is a peaceful retreat, with a spacious master suite opening to the courtyard, plus a walk-through robe and ensuite with double vanity, heated floors and towel rails. A sun filled fourth bedroom and luxurious bathroom with spa bath complete the rear. At the front, two more bedrooms and a third bathroom add even more space.

The Inner South lifestyle: Deakin is one of Canberra's most central and prestigious suburbs. Alfred Deakin High and Yarralumla Primary are within walking distance, with both Grammar schools close by. Deakin, Yarralumla and Curtin shops are nearby, Manuka Village is minutes away, and Woden, Barton, and the city are less than a 10-minute drive. Downsizers or families ready for a genuine lifestyle move, this home delivers exceptional light, generous space, effortless entertaining and an outstanding Inner South address.

Buying in a suburb like Deakin and in a street like this one, does not come around often. Put your best offer forward as now is the perfect time to upgrade when the changeover costs are lower. Don't miss out, take the next step and get in touch today.
