Crack the Code

Solid home with original character. This home has some beautiful features starting from the Australiana themed glass panel front door and wide hallways. The solid brick and tile home is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac and on an awesome 814sqm block. The home has three very generous size bedrooms, the north facing kitchen is decked out in a timber finish and there is a separate dining or sunroom which is bigger than some normal bedrooms. Convenient and instant gas heater keeps the home cosy. There is a single garage and workshop area under the home accessible from the back yard. The backyard opens up widely and is just made for the family and pets. This property would make a great home or investment option.
