white finish cabinetry, extra storage in the cabinetry, and linen cupboard with LOTS power points (you can never have enough).

All doors and windows are double-glazed and with security screens on windows and doors for extra piece of mind.

A study nook sits to the side to be able to shut work off during those WFH days without compromising the main space or extra storage space with natural light pouring in from its own window.

A two way access bathroom means no one has to go through your bedroom. The easy to maintain white finish continuing to the bathroom with basin.

Double glazed windows in the bedroom allows light to flow into the bedroom to be greeted by the greenery and privacy around the apartment. Along with floor to ceiling built-in-robe.

Secure outdoor living yard and grass area allows to turn the outside into a secure area for a pet or even turning into a planetarium to sit in Spring.

With secure basement carpark right next to the stairs to the apartment or lift. You enter your apartment through you covered outdoor space.

Being a part of the inner North of Canberra brings the lifestyle perks to match, minutes' walk to the light rail straight the city.

Infamous boutique grocery stores, high end restaurants local Parisian bakery and pubs all at Ainslie Shops just down the street. Local club Dickson Tradies and Ainslie Football Club. Grocery shopping is a breeze with new Coles and long-standing Woolworths with all the essential shops included around the area.

The beauty of living in the Inner North of Canberra is this is where people want to live in Canberra when they first move here. It will never not be popular as one of Canberra's favourite regions.
