Why Eagleby?

Eagleby continues to shine as a family-friendly suburb offering affordability, accessibility, and strong community appeal. Nestled between Brisbane and the Gold Coast with easy M1 access, you're perfectly positioned for commuting in either direction. Local schools, shopping centres, parks, childcare facilities and medical services are all within minutes, making everyday life seamless for busy households. With growing infrastructure and continued demand from families seeking value and space, Eagleby remains a smart and strategic choice.

Opportunities like this are incredibly rare! Whether you're bringing the whole family together under one roof, investing in a high-demand rental configuration, or securing a property with future upside, 18 Curlew Crescent is the kind of home that grows with you. Big land, big home, big potential - this is multi-generational living done right.

Contact Eileen and Benjamin today for more information. Come and experience the space, the flexibility and the lifestyle for yourself - homes like this don't stay a secret for long.
