room, helping make busy mornings that little bit easier. A dedicated internal laundry adds another layer of practicality and could potentially be explored for conversion into an ensuite, subject to relevant approvals and buyer investigations.

Outside, the property really opens up the possibilities. The spacious backyard gives you room to enjoy the outdoors, while the swimming pool is ready to become a favourite spot when summer rolls around.

For households with more than the standard two-car setup, the corner-block position, front-yard space, side access and street access provide additional flexibility for parking multiple vehicles, a boat, trailer or jet skis. Combined with the double carport and storage shed, there is plenty here for buyers who need room for both everyday vehicles and weekend toys.
