Sitting on a desirable corner block with picturesque views of the Spirit of Tasmania, this charming home offers unbeatable convenience. Located only a short stroll from local shops, the medical center, schools, and more. Perfect for first-time home buyers or investors, this property boasts a spacious open-plan living and dining area, complete with ducted gas heating throughout to ensure year-round comfort. Both generously sized double bedrooms feature built-in wardrobes for added storage and with some reconfiguration could easily become a three bedroom home.

The practical internal laundry is conveniently located behind the kitchen, with direct access to the outdoor enclosed entertaining area—ideal for alfresco dining. The backyard is a tranquil retreat with a fully fenced yard, mature fig tree, and flourishing vegetable garden. For the car or those in need of extra storage, the property offers two garages: one accessible via Stephen Street, with internal access to the BBQ area, and the other located underneath the home with Tarleton Street access.

A truly unique home, this property stands out thanks to its charming Tudor-style curved
