function as a home office. Positioned conveniently off the living area, it provides an excellent option for those working from home or requiring additional multipurpose space.

THE FEATURES

At the heart of the apartment is a practical and generously sized kitchen featuring gas cooking, a large corner pantry, white timber-look finishes, a brand-new dishwasher and ample space for an oversized refrigerator. Its open-plan connection to the living area ensures the home remains functional and social, whether preparing everyday meals or entertaining guests.

Additional features include secure intercom access, separate storage, upgraded lighting and a freshly painted interior. Residents also enjoy access to a plunge pool and spa, adding another layer of lifestyle appeal to this boutique complex.

THE LOCATION

Positioned along quiet Bronte Street, the apartment places an impressive selection of lifestyle attractions within easy reach. The popular Royal Street café precinct is within walking distance, providing convenient access to cafés, dining and everyday amenities.

Excellent public transport options include access to the free Red and Yellow CAT services, while nearby parks, walking trails and major sporting and entertainment destinations add to the location's appeal. Perth Stadium and the WACA are also easily accessible, placing some of Perth's best recreation and entertainment options close to home.

THE AMENITIES

Designed for easy, low-maintenance living, the boutique complex offers residents the added enjoyment of a plunge pool and spa, providing a relaxing space to unwind without the maintenance associated with owning these facilities privately. Secure intercom access and separate storage further enhance the convenience of the property.

Permit parking is also available for a second vehicle, adding valuable flexibility for couples, households with multiple cars or visiting guests. Combined with low ongoing strata levies and a boutique group of only 12 residences, the property provides an appealing balance between lifestyle and affordability.

THE WHY

Renovated and ready to move straight into, this oversized apartment represents an excellent opportunity to enter the market without the expense or inconvenience of undertaking immediate improvements. Its three-bedroom floorplan, generous living area and flexible third bedroom make it equally suited to comfortable everyday living, working from home or investment.

Add the boutique setting, Perth skyline outlook, low strata levies and highly convenient location, and you have a compelling inner-city opportunity with plenty to offer. Simply move in, settle down and enjoy the lifestyle from day one.
