Set in a quiet, well-connected pocket of Eight Mile Plains, this is a home that works with you. Across two levels, the layout offers clearly defined zones while still maintaining a natural sense of flow - ideal for families needing separation, shared spaces, or even dual-purpose living arrangements.

At the centre, the oversized kitchen anchors the home with long stretches of bench space, stone benchtops, excellent storage, quality appliances, and a layout that connects seamlessly to both dining and living zones. Not to mention a large walk-in pantry with storage for days! Whether it's busy mornings or relaxed weekend entertaining, everything feels considered and practical.

Living areas extend effortlessly outdoors through multiple sliding doors, creating a strong indoor-outdoor connection and allowing natural light and airflow to move throughout the home. It's a setup that makes everyday living feel open, easy, and connected.

Upstairs, the master suite offers its own private retreat, complete with two built-in robes, open ensuite with spa bath, and breezy balcony - perfect for opening up the room, plus the added bonus of an office right next door. Additional bedrooms are well-sized and versatile, supported by multiple bathrooms across both levels to keep things functional for larger households.

The inclusion of a dedicated study - converted from part of the garage - adds another layer of flexibility, ideal for a home business, remote work setup, or creative space.

Outdoors is where this property truly surprises. The covered deck sets the tone for relaxed entertaining, overlooking a quaint, almost hidden garden space complete with built-in seating woven into the landscaping. It's a low-maintenance yet character-filled backyard, offering a peaceful escape without the upkeep. A small shed adds further versatility - whether for storage, hobbies, or something more creative.

Additional features include:

- ? Solar panel system and solar hot water
- ? 5,000L water tank
- ? Split system reverse cycle air conditioning
- ? New carpet and timber-style flooring
- ? New decking, fencing, and walk-in pantry

Positioned for ultimate convenience, you're just minutes from major motorways, public transport options including the Eight Mile Plains Busway, and a selection of major shopping and dining precincts. Daily life here is streamlined, connected, and easy.

A home with this level of flexibility, comfort, and lifestyle appeal is a rare find - ready to move in, yet full of potential to personalise further.

Opportunities like this don't sit still - contact Zora Alan & Leah Li today to arrange your inspection today.
