complemented by rear verandahs, tool sheds, and sizeable backyards, providing ample space for children to play, outdoor entertaining, or future improvements. Both properties have had their hot water systems replaced within the last 18 months, ensuring reliable amenities and peace of mind for landlords and tenants alike.

First Home Buyers can choose between numbers 4 or 6, move in at the end of lease and add value over time, securing a solid future.

For investors, this is a turn-key opportunity with secure long-term tenants in place and consistent rental returns from day one.

Developers explore the subdivision potential by acquiring both properties or build a significant single dwelling.
