

18 Rosebery Street, Fisher

Large Fisher Family Home With RZ2 Potential!

Highly regarded for its central location and peaceful, family-friendly atmosphere Fisher is rightly considered one of the most desirable parts of Weston Creek. Picturesque Rosebery Street takes pride of place in the suburb and with large family homes on big, established blocks becoming harder and harder to find number 18 is all that and more and is the perfect spot for you and your family to call home.

The beauty of this property is the flexibility the split level and segregated floor plan offers making it perfect for families of all shapes and sizes. The main bedroom and ensuite are adjacent to the lounge room and could really easily be used as a parent's retreat. The remaining four bedrooms are separate from the living areas and at the opposite end of the home is a multi-purpose area that could be set up as a media room or games room —the perfect entertaining spot for the big and little kids in the family!

Further separation is provided with a functional kitchen and separate dining area that opens out to a north facing deck and big backyard that enjoys year-round dappled sunshine through the established gardens and the remaining four bedrooms
