More Than Meets The Eye

OPEN HOME this Weekend !!

Perfectly presented and wonderfully deceptive in size, this lowset home is a true surprise package, offering far more space and flexibility than you might expect at first glance.

From the enclosed front patio, which lends itself beautifully to a home office, sunroom or quiet sitting area, the home flows into four generously sized bedrooms. The master bedroom features ample built-in storage, air conditioning and a ceiling fan, with two additional bedrooms offering similar comfort and practicality.

The fourth bedroom is also a generous space, while the internal courtyard off the lounge room provides even more versatility. Currently used as a massage room, this unique area has previously served as an art studio and would also make an amazing children's playroom, hobby space or peaceful retreat.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen and dining area is a joy to enter. Featuring a charming check-tiled floor, modern touches and exceptional storage, the kitchen is both stylish and functional. The impressive cooker is sure to delight any home chef, complete with a plate warmer and five-burner gas cooktop.
