

1 Cameron Street, Gawler

Old Charm, Modern Touch

Rich in history and beautifully updated, this symmetrical circa 1875 stone cottage presents a rare opportunity to secure a home in one of Gawler's most tightly held and historically significant streets.

Positioned within the original township on Cameron Street, just off Cowan Street, the home seamlessly blends period charm with modern comfort, offering approximately 142 sqm (approx.) of internal living space and 227sqm with external set on a generous 539 sqm allotment.

From the moment you step inside, the long central hallway showcases polished timber floorboards, soaring ceilings, and the timeless elegance of a bygone era. The original stone facade remains intact, setting the tone for the warmth and character that flows throughout the home.

The clever floorplan effortlessly connects the original cottage to the modern rear extension, creating a beautiful fusion of old and new. The extension provides a spacious family living and dining area, while the original rooms offer outstanding flexibility easily reconfigured back into formal lounge and dining spaces or kept as a 4th bedroom, depending on your needs.
