conditioning keeps the main living area comfortable through the warmer months. Sliding doors connect directly with the patio outside, so entertaining can spill naturally from indoors to out.

The kitchen sits right at the heart of the home and has everything you need for day-to-day cooking, including an electric oven, gas cooktop, tiled splashback, double sink and built-in pantry. It's practical, functional and well connected to both the dining area and outdoor entertaining space.

The bathroom includes a modern single vanity, shower screen and heated light, while the laundry adds handy overhead cabinetry. A separate enclosed toilet completes the wet-area layout.

Out the back, the paved 4m x 10m patio gives you PLENTY of room to set up the barbecue, outdoor dining table and a comfortable spot to unwind. The securely fenced yard is easy to maintain, side access adds genuine practicality for a trailer or extra vehicle, and the garden shed gives you useful space for tools, storage or weekend projects.

And then there's the location. Longlands Park sits across the road, offering grassed areas, a playground, shaded picnic tables and pathway and cycleway access, while Geographe Bay is approximately 350 metres away. That means morning walks, a quick swim or an evening wander along the coast can become part of everyday life.

With Busselton's wider network of shared walking and cycling paths connecting neighbourhoods with town, schools and community hubs, you're also well placed to enjoy everything this part of the South West does so well. Beaches, cafés, the Busselton foreshore and Jetty precinct are all within easy reach, yet at home you can enjoy a quieter pocket of Geographe with space to settle in and make it your own.
