everyday family life and effortless entertaining. At its centre, the designer kitchen is sure to impress, featuring stone benchtops, a large island bench, electric oven, gas cooktop, dishwasher, double fridge recess, walk-in pantry and a striking solid splashback, offering everything the home chef could wish for.

The king-sized master suite provides a private retreat, complete with a walk-in robe, television point and a beautifully appointed ensuite featuring a double shower, stone-top vanity and separate toilet. Three additional queen-sized bedrooms all include built-in robes, ducted air conditioning and quality finishes, ensuring every member of the family enjoys their own comfortable space.

Multiple living zones provide exceptional flexibility, with a dedicated theatre room for movie nights and an activity room that's perfect as a children's retreat, games room or study space. Every detail has been carefully considered to create a home that adapts effortlessly to modern family living.

Outside is where this property truly shines. The paved alfresco extends your living space year-round, offering the perfect setting for entertaining family and friends. Fire up the barbecue using the convenient natural gas bayonet, unwind in the impressive decked spa area or simply relax amongst the established gardens while enjoying the peaceful outlook over the charming fish pond. With generous side access and plenty of room for the caravan or boat, this property is ready for every adventure.

Located in the ever-popular suburb of Geographe, you'll enjoy easy access to the sparkling waters of Geographe Bay, the iconic Busselton Jetty and vibrant Busselton Foreshore. Quality schools, local cafés, shopping, Port Geographe Marina, walking and cycling trails are all close by, making this an outstanding location to enjoy the very best of the South West lifestyle.
