

51 Lookout Road, Peel Forest, Geraldine

A Classic Kiwi Bach with Soul

Tucked away in a private native bush setting, north facing, with views towards Little Mt Peel, this charming cottage captures the true essence of a traditional kiwi bach.

There is ample accommodation for family and friends with a mix of bunk and double bedrooms designed for relaxed group getaways. Bathroom consists of a shower over the bath, WC and hand basin. The kitchen features a traditional coal range, while the cosy lounge offers the warmth and ambience of a built-in log burner - the perfect place to unwind after a day exploring the forest. Off-road parking provides easy access, allowing you to arrive, unpack, and immediately settle into the tranquil surroundings.

Authentic, peaceful, and increasingly hard to find - this is a genuine Peel Forest treasure, ready for its next chapter.
