There's a sense of grace from the moment you arrive. Manicured lawns, decorative security screening and a classic brick facade set the tone, while the wide frontage and immaculate presentation hint at the pride of ownership held here over many years.

Inside, the home unfolds with surprising generosity. A large central living room offers soft comfort and natural connection to the dining zone, while the distinctive arched doorways add a touch of mid-century elegance rarely found today. These are spaces designed for everyday ease, yet filled with the kind of detail that makes a house memorable.

The kitchen is wonderfully spacious and practical, with extensive bench space, ample cabinetry, dishwasher, and a layout that feels true to the home's heritage. It's functional, honest, and ready for busy family life from day one.

All three bedrooms include built-in robes, with the oversized main bedroom enjoying its own ensuite renovation completed in 2020. The main bathroom also features a stylish double vanity, arched mirror and a large walk-in shower.

Then there are the lifestyle spaces. The enclosed sunroom is something special. Bathed in light and framed by garden outlooks, it feels like a calm throwback to slower days - morning tea, afternoon reading, rain on the windows, summer breezes. It's a room that invites you to pause.

Beyond that, a large front undercover entertaining area, delivers year-round functionality. The space can be extended by lifting the privacy blinds and opening out onto the double carport. So whether you have family gatherings, celebrations, hobbies, workshop space, or need the extra parking - this large space adapts effortlessly to whatever life calls for.

The backyard is private, usable and beautifully established, complete with water tank, lawned areas, garden beds and rear single garage/workshop. Secure fencing makes it ideal for children and pets, while the wide drive-through access adds genuine convenience.

Set in a peaceful pocket surrounded by parklands and nature corridors, this address offers a relaxed outer-city lifestyle with everyday amenities close at hand. Schools, shopping centres, public transport and major roads are all within easy reach, giving you the balance of calm living and urban connection. It's also within the Kruger State School and Bellbird Park State Secondary College catchment, making it a great choice for families seeking local education.

Homes with this much character, space and authenticity are becoming increasingly rare. Whether you're searching for a charming family home, a smart investment, or simply somewhere with heart - this is one worth remembering.
