

Gordon

Architectural Grandeur of Exceptional Scale and Sophistication

Commanding an elevated position behind an impressive wide frontage, this brand-new residence makes an immediate statement through its remarkable proportions, refined craftsmanship and uncompromising attention to detail. Designed for both grand entertaining and effortless family living, every space has been considered with a sense of scale and purpose.

Soaring six-metre ceilings create a spectacular centrepiece to the main living domain, where crystal chandeliers, detailed wainscoting and a marble-framed fireplace lend depth and character to the interiors. Blackbutt timber floors, oversized doors and beautifully executed finishes continue throughout, while multiple living zones provide both openness and privacy across the home.

The kitchen is equally impressive, centred around a substantial marble island and appointed with a comprehensive suite of Miele appliances. An extensively equipped butler's pantry provides exceptional preparation and storage space, making the home as practical for everyday living as it is accomplished for entertaining.
