A soaring ceiling draws daylight downward into a grand central hall &mdash; the spiritual heart of the residence. Here, scale and stillness coexist, setting the tone for a home where architecture and atmosphere work in harmony.

Multiple Living Wings

The formal lounge and dining rooms frame garden outlooks like living artwork, offering refined spaces for quiet gatherings. At the centre, a superbly appointed modern kitchen features premium Miele and Robam appliances, multifunctional sinks and generous benchtops, seamlessly connecting to an intimate sunlit dining space where daily living feels elevated yet effortless.

Beyond, an expansive family lounge &mdash; complete with a fireplace &mdash; opens fluidly to pavilions and water features, creating a setting for warmth, conversation and celebration. The indoor-outdoor flow continues to a covered alfresco terrace with built-in barbecue, overlooking the sparkling in-ground pool and full-sized tennis court, establishing a private resort-like atmosphere rarely found in a residential home.

At the opposite wing lies a spacious entertainment hall, perfectly suited to fitness, games, or a vibrant teenagers' retreat, while extensive storage and multiple access points enhance flexibility across every level.

5 Bedroom + a Home Office Private Realm

A sweeping curved staircase rises in a graceful arc as light drifts softly across surfaces, leading to thoughtfully arranged accommodation. Four children's bedrooms are impressively proportioned and filled with natural light, positioned alongside a well-appointed central bathroom and separate powder room.

The master suite sits like a private pavilion on the highest level &mdash; elevated, serene and commanding open views. Generous his-and-hers wardrobes and an oversized fully tiled ensuite with separate bathtub and luxurious double shower create a sanctuary defined by stature and calm.

On the lower level, a refined study and private guest suite offer a secluded domain of comfort and discretion, ideal for extended family or visiting guests.

Garden Crown

The private back garden is a sanctuary that shifts effortlessly between vitality and stillness. A tennis court, swimming pool with outdoor shower, and multiple open and undercover outdoor living zones respond to one another in harmonious balance. It is a landscape designed for gathering &mdash; a place where family and friends come together and where the richness of daily life unfolds naturally.

A Rare Coordinate

Layered yet harmonious, grand yet composed, the estate stands as a vision of private sanctuary and enduring prestige. Completing the offering are a secure three-car garage, smart lock entry, alarm system and exceptional storage throughout &mdash; ensuring comfort, security and ease.
