130 Waterholes Road, Granite Rock

IRONBARK RISE

High on the hill in a secluded location on Waterholes Road, this exceptional property offers some of the most magnificent mountain views you'll find. Built to last, the 22-year-old steel-framed home combines durability with cool wall paneling for comfort all year round, making it the perfect sanctuary for those seeking space, privacy, and a connection to nature. Inside, you'll find four spacious bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, ideal for accommodating family and guests with ease. The home features two large entertaining areas, one with fireplace and split system and the other with an open fireplace, providing the perfect setting to relax and soak in the stunning surroundings year-round. Outside, a 12mX7m shed offers ample room for cars, tools, and a workshop. Set on 3.14 hectares of native bushland, this property delivers the ultimate lifestyle escape with room to roam, explore, and unwind. Don't miss the chance to make this mountain-view retreat your own.
