

10 Lockyer Street, Griffith

Premier Griffith Living Featuring Space, Lifestyle and Location Combined

Positioned on a large 1398sqm block and designed for comfortable family living, the home combines generous proportions with everyday practicality, all just moments to Manuka Village, Griffith Shops and local schools.

Beautifully reimaged by an architectural redesign, this iconic 1939 "Kenneth Oliphant" home is set on one of Griffith's premier tree-lined streets, this expansive family residence offers the space, scale and lifestyle in this tightly held Inner South location

Bathed in natural light and designed for effortless indoor—outdoor living, the home features formal lounge and dining spaces centred around an open fireplace, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Four generous bedrooms include a serene, north-facing main bedroom with a walk-in robe, designer ensuite and direct garden access. The second bedroom with its own entry and ensuite offers the perfect solution for visiting guests, a private home office or an independent teenager's retreat.
