

148/70 Efkarpidis Street, Gungahlin

If only all one bedrooms were like this.

Some apartments are just easy to understand.

Positioned within the Sierra complex in Gungahlin proper, this one-bedroom apartment is a straightforward entry point into the property market. No overthinking the layout or complex, no wasted space, just something that works from the moment you walk in.

The living area sits open to the kitchen and flows directly out to the balcony, giving the space a bit more room to move. The balcony, which brings in good natural light from two sides, making the apartment feel comfortable to live in year-round.

The kitchen is practical and well laid out, with an electric cooktop, under-bench oven, dishwasher, and good storage.

The bedroom is well proportioned with built-in robes, flowing into the living room and the rest of the apartment seamlessly.

The bathroom is simple and functional. A European laundry neatly incorporated.

Step outside, and the balcony gives you somewhere to sit, not just stand. A small but important difference in apartments at this level.

The Sierra complex sits in a pocket of Gungahlin that makes everyday life easier. The town centre, grocery stores, light rail and cafés/ restaurants are all within walking distance, so most things can be done without needing to drive.

Being sold as a vacant property, the apartment presents as a straightforward move-in-ready or set up for a great investment, as one-bedroom apartments like this rent out quickly. For buyers looking to get into the market, well-located and easy to manage, this one does what it should.
