

38 McIntyre Street, Hendra

PARK SIDE SINGLE LEVEL LIVING!

Positioned directly opposite Bannister Park in one of Hendra's most tightly held residential pockets, this low-set four-bedroom residence presents a rare opportunity to secure a single-level family home within a suburb where this style of layout is seldom available.

Designed for practical everyday living, the home offers multiple internal living zones supported by a centrally positioned kitchen with generous bench space and storage. The main living and dining areas connect directly to the covered rear entertaining terrace, creating strong flow between indoor and outdoor spaces while maintaining clear separation between living and accommodation zones.

The covered alfresco area provides a private setting for outdoor dining and entertaining, overlooking the backyard and extending the usable living footprint of the home across all seasons. The level yard offers additional flexibility for families while maintaining a manageable 405m² allotment size.

Accommodation includes four well-proportioned bedrooms positioned across the home for privacy and separation. The primary bedroom is supported by a walk-in robe and private ensuite, while the remaining
