Family Home with Endless Potential

Set on a generous approx. 752m2 block, this is great example of a well loved and maintained home which presents a fantastic opportunity with the freedom to update, personalise and add value over time.

Built in the early 80's, the home offers a practical and family friendly layout with features that were rare for its time but desirable for the modern day families. Featuring four bedrooms, two bathrooms and two separate living areas. While the interiors are yet to be showcased, the home provides a solid foundation for those seeking a comfortable home now, with exciting scope to enhance and modernise at their own pace.

The master bedroom features an ensuite, walk-in robe and adjoining room which could be converted into a retreat, study or nursery if required.

The lounge brings warmth and character with a pitched roof and exposed timber beams flowing through to the formal dining space with sliding door access outside.

The kitchen offers a sense of connection with its open plan design,
