

9 Emery Street, Hillcrest

Sold by Luke Mitchell & Troy Tyndall of LJ Hooker Adelaide Metro

Positioned in a quiet street, this one owner home offers a practical and comfortable lifestyle suited to families, first home buyers or investors seeking a ready to enjoy opportunity.

Built in the early 2000s, the home features three bedrooms, two bathrooms and a central living area designed for easy everyday living. The thoughtful layout places the master bedroom privately at the rear of the home, creating a peaceful retreat that opens directly to a greenhouse space, perfect for those who enjoy gardening or a relaxing morning outlook.

The main living area flows effortlessly to the large side pergola leading through to the grassed backyard, providing a secure and usable outdoor space for children, pets or entertaining. The large under cover entertaining area offers an inviting spot for outdoor meals or weekend gatherings.

Completing the offering is a sizeable garden shed for storage and a well balanced floorplan that combines comfort with low maintenance
