Step outside and the space really opens up. The backyard is fully enclosed, flat and green, offering endless room for kids and pets to run and play. A classic Hills Hoist adds to the charm, while the size of the block leaves plenty of opportunity for future improvements or simply enjoying the space as it is.

Out the front, neatly maintained trees create a sense of privacy, with a flat grassed yard and a concrete deck providing a welcoming entry to the home. The long paved driveway leads through to a lock-up garage set further back on the block, allowing for additional off-street parking for trailers, caravans or extra vehicles.
