

Holt, 5/96 Britten-Jones Drive

Prime Position With Gorgeous Golf Course Views

Tucked away in a gorgeous spot in a leafy boutique development, with stunning views across the tree lined golf course, this completely freestanding single level townhouse could be just what you've been waiting for.

Well maintained, living areas are open plan, with expansive north facing windows allowing light to stream through. The kitchen has plenty of cupboard space with a dishwasher, and home inclusions such as evaporative cooling.

All three bedrooms are a good size and have built in wardrobes and the main bedroom has ensuite access through to the main two way bathroom.

Additionally, the garage has been converted to a great extra living space, the ideal play room, generous office or studio. Yet provision for garden tools and other items has been well considered with a lockup storage shed area still incorporated into the design.
