

9/2 Walsh Loop, Joondalup

Ground Floor Apartment with Room to Breathe

A ground floor apartment with genuine outdoor space to match the indoor living. Step out from the living area onto a covered alfresco, which opens onto a private courtyard and a wide side garden running the length of the home - ideal for entertaining, gardening, or just having room to move outside.

Inside, open-plan living and dining connect through to a well-appointed kitchen. The master bedroom sits privately zoned with its own ensuite and walk-in robe, while bedrooms two and three are a comfortable size with built-in robes, sharing a separate bathroom and laundry.

Practical extras include a dedicated store room and undercover parking for two cars, along with the ease of a secure, low-maintenance lifestyle - simply move in, lock up and go. The complex itself is secure and well-appointed, with a swimming pool, a large gym, and a BBQ area set on timber decking beneath frangipani trees - a great spot to unwind or entertain.

The location is hard to beat. You're walking distance to Edith Cowan University, minutes from Joondalup Health Campus, and directly
