

27 Quesnel Place, Joondalup

Space, Privacy, and a Backyard That Delivers.

Space, privacy, and a backyard that truly delivers, this is the calibre of property that rarely presents itself. Built in 1990 and impeccably maintained ever since, this four bedroom, one bathroom home boasts a thoughtfully designed floor plan that brings the family together with effortless ease.

It is outside, however, where this property truly distinguishes itself. The generous block offers exceptional size and versatility, with the backyard thoughtfully divided into a series of distinct zones, each offering its own character and purpose, whether for entertaining, relaxing, or simply enjoying the outdoors. Native trees and plantings feature throughout, presented in immaculate, beautifully maintained condition. A substantial undercover alfresco extends from the elongated double carport, measuring 9.5 meters and comfortably accommodating up to four vehicles, while a garden shed and dual side access further enhance the property's practicality.

Positioned on a cul de sac, the home offers exceptional convenience, just moments from Burns Beach Road and freeway access, with an easy walk to Joondalup Primary School, local day cares, and the ever popular Windermere Park, a firm favourite for weekend sport and time
